A Proof Lifter.

A Chinese compositor was, at the Magistrate's day, sent to prison for three months for stealing two proofs from the office of his employer, of whom he was a proof lifter. The Magistrate said that he was not a proof lifter, but a compositor, and that he was not a proof lifter, but a compositor.

The "Coromandel."

The "P. and O. S. N. Company's" Coromandel, with the homeward mails on board, did not leave Hongkong till one o'clock yesterday morning. There were no further cases of plague on board. The temperature of the whole crew was taken and one native was put ashore, being slightly fevered.

More Armed Robbers.

At about 11.30 on Saturday night eight men, armed with revolvers, broke into a house at Kowloon, and, after threatening the occupants, ransacked the house, taking money, clothing and jewellery to the value of $200. The matter was reported to the police, who succeeded in arresting five men at Tokuwan with part of the stolen property in their possession. The men were brought up at the Magistrate's to-day and remanded.

Sale of Crown Land.

At the Office of the Public Works Department this afternoon, Mr. G. J. W. King exposed for sale by public auction several lots of Crown land at Mongkok. Lot No. 1576, containing 33,500 square feet, and having an annual rent of $302, was sold to Wang Tsau Lam for $10,065, being $20 above the upset price. Lot No. 1077, containing 30,900 square feet and having an annual rent of $240, was sold for $7,650 to Chan Wei Chiu. Lots 1078 and 1079, each containing 14,487 square feet and having annual rents of $165, were sold to Li Ping at $7,200 and $10,000 respectively. The Mok Lan purchased Lot No. 1080 at $4,640, and Lot 1081 was sold at $5,220 to Chan Yen Chung.

Death of Staff-Captain Symons, S.A.

In the death of Staff-Captain Symons, which took place at the Government Civil Hospital on Friday, there succumbed a martyr to the cause of the Salvation Army. The deceased was only forty-five years of age, but during his life he had experienced much of the world's rough hand. For sixteen years he had been engaged in the work of the Salvation Army, and by reason of his religious enthusiasm he was arrested for "obstruction" and served three weeks in Norwich Gaol and was also imprisoned by the police in the West End. He was engaged more particularly in social work in London, and recognising his worth as an organiser the Army administration sent him to Hongkong two and a half years ago to inaugurate and carry on a Salvation Army Home in the Colony. The Home was established in Queen's Road and the deceased, helped by his wife and family, has made a brave fight to carry on the work he had so much at heart. The heavy strain of the work told upon his health and he was sent to hospital completely broken down. On Saturday the genius was buried at the Happy Valley, Rev. G. J. Williams performing the ceremony. Deceased leaves a widow and two daughters and a circle of grateful friends to mourn his early demise.

Registrar-General's Report.

The Registrar-General's Report on the work of his department shows the revenue collected during the year amounted to $135,248.40 as against $127,410.73 collected in 1898. Of the total increase of $7,837.67, the sum of $6,133.30 is derived from the Market. The latter increase comes principally from the Central, Western and Saiyungpan Markets, and is due to the increased rent obtained from stalls, which were put up to tender on being given by their holders. $944.93 of the increase is due to the opening of a market at Taikoo-mui. There are small increases under most of the other headings of revenue. The item "Certificates of Identity issued to Chinese proceeding to the United States of America," accounts for the principal decrease of $1,423. This decrease was anticipated by the Acting Registrar-General, Mr. Brown, in his report for 1898. It is difficult to estimate in advance the revenue to be derived from this uncertain source, but it is not likely that there will be any decrease next year. The expenditure during the year was $13,090.15 as compared with $13,128 in 1898.

THE PHILIPPINE COMMISSION.

ARRIVAL OF THE TRANSPORT "HARBOUR."

The U.S. transport Harbour arrived late on Saturday night with the new Commission to the Philippines on board. The Harbour anchored in Hongkong Bay, and at eight o'clock on Sunday morning took up her position in the man-of-war anchorage. The trip from San Francisco has been made in a leisurely fashion, that port having been made at Honolulu and Japanese ports en route. The President of the Commission, Judge William H. Taft, of Ohio, has of late years combined the duties of a United States circuit judge with those of dean of the law department of the University of Cincinnati. Professor Dean C. Worcester, of the University of Michigan, served on the first commission, and he will be an invaluable member, for he has been on the islands three before and is a high authority on existing conditions in the Philippines. Judge Henry C. Ide, of Vermont, was chief justice of Samoa from 1893 to 1897, and is well-versed in international law. Mr. E. R. Wright, of Tennessee, is described as a Democratic lawyer of marked ability, and a believer in imperialism. Professor Bernard Moses has held the chair of political economy in the University of California since 1876, and is the author of many historical treatises, including "Democracy and Social Growth in America." The personnel of the commission seems to have aroused little or no hostile criticism in the States; indeed the Chicago Tribune says: "President McKinley has not only managed to represent all sections of the country in the membership of his new Philippine Commission, but he has also brought together a body of able men. Three of the five members are college professors of high standing, and the other two are men of legal and political experience. The commission seems to be a judicious combination of the practical and the theoretical elements necessary for the solution of the difficult problems that must arise in creating good political and judicial systems for the Philippines." Judge Taft, the President, at a banquet given in his honour, declared in effect, that he is an anti-imperialist, but, he felt, that he must make the best of the situation in which he found himself. While he had hoped that the jurisdiction of our nation would not extend beyond territory between the two oceans, he is prepared to accept responsibility for the situation. "Circumstances beyond our control," he said, "have thrust upon us the responsibility for the future government of the Philippines. I have to deal with the situation as it is, and whatever the consequences may be, I shall do my best to meet the present needs." The expansionist press quoted these words with great approval. The anti-imperialist papers also find something to commend in his remarks. "The individual benefits to the trade of this country arising from the new relation must be made subservient to the interests of those who have become our wards," the New York Evening Post says. "This sentiment is excellent in spirit, and the Springfield Republican says that 'with such exalted aspirations every one can be in sympathy.'"

A Remark of Sir G. White.

The Central News says that when Sir George White was visiting his father-in-law, Archdeacon Dayley, at Windsor Great Park, he called at Cumberland Lodge and saw Prince Christian, and the two were engaged for some time in conversation on the war. Prince Christian remarked, "I don't suppose you shall see my nephew, meaning Prince Christian Victor, home for 12 months, shall I, Sir George?" General White replied, "Oh, yes, I think the war will be over in three months."

Major Gawne.

Major Gawne, second in command of the 1st Lancashire Regiment, Aldershot, who has been appointed Lieutenant-Colonel to command the 2nd Battalion, which is posted to Spion Kop, has had nearly twenty-five years' service in the regiment, and has done duty in South Africa, Egypt, China and Singapore, having returned from the last-named station only a few weeks ago. Colonel Gawne was with Sir Charles Warren in the Bechuanaland Expedition, and along with Colonel Croft, whose place he now fills, served in the Russian Expedition in the Zaba War. He is a Staff Colonel, and has been on General Kurop's staff at Cairo.

The Price of Coal.

Mr. Ellis Lever, in a communication to the Manchester Courier, predicts that within three years the price of coal will be again doubled, unless exportation to the foreign buyer is entirely prohibited, a very heavy tax placed upon any coal exported to be used by foreigners. He alleges that only the other day an order was given by the Russian Government for 500,000 tons of smokeless steam coal from South Wales for the Russian Navy, in addition to very large purchases made by the same Government during the present year. Belgium, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, and Spain, as well as Russia, are making enormous demands upon our coal output, and Mr. Lever expresses his opinion that within fifty years our workable coal mines will have been practically exhausted. With an empty coal cellar, Britain will be practically helpless, and all her industries ruined.

A VERY REMARKABLE REMEDY.

There is a still need for nothing better than a free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It quickly relieves the stiffness and soreness, effecting a complete cure. For sale by All Dealers, Watkins & Co., Gen. Agents.
